Guided Walking Tours

Take a guided walking tour of Belfast city and experience its sights, sounds and atmosphere in the best way possible... on foot.

HISTORIC BELFAST

These tours will take you through three hundred fascinating years of Belfast's history. You'll explore the city's humble origins and follow the original 1660's street layout. En route, you'll savour Victorian architectural gems such as the City Hall and Belfast's very own leaning tower, the Albert Memorial Clock. You'll also experience the glamour and the tragedy that was Titanic by visiting landmark locations from the period and hearing about the characters that frequented them.

Group bookings - contact Belfast Welcome Centre: 028 9024 6609 or email: info@belfastvisitor.com

BLACKSTAFF WAY

This tour takes in many interesting streets including Great Victoria Street. You see the oldest bridge in Belfast, find out about the 'Black Man' and the Mystery Stone from Belfast Castle of 1708. There is so much to discover along the Blackstaff Way that you will find it to be a great introduction to the heart of Belfast.
